Fourth Period.

Academy ball in center of field. Swan and Coughlin make 23 yards to which Swan adds 8 on a neat forward pass. Westerly took ball on famble, but Academy recovered it on a forward pass. The ball changed hands again, and forward passes were atlempted. Herhert recovered ball on a fumble by Westerly on their Iv yard line. Georath covers six yards and it looks like a touchdown. McCormick goes over for a touchdown, but the Westerly referee penalized the Academy instead of declaring a touchdown. His grounds were that the ball was pushed over. McCormick tried a kick from placement, but it falled to reach the goal line. A Westerly player recovered the ball and ran the length of the field for a touchdown.

STOCK MARKET SENSITIVE Over Prospect of Advance in Bank of England Discount Rate.

New York, Oct. 19.-The sensitive New York, Oct. 19.—The sensitive-ness of the stock market today to the prospect of an advance is the Bank of England discount rate tomorrow strengthened the conviction that bor-rowing abroad had been reffect on to carry on the campaign for the rise. Discounts in London were conditional on the bank rate, the conviction being general that an advance would occur. general that an advance would occur but whether to 4 1-2 or 5 per cent. was left conjectural in the advices by ca-

The speculative contingent which have been following the advance in stocks on the assumption that it was organized and furthered by influen-tial banking sources were disturbed by the doubt of how far distribution of stocks from these sources had beer going on while they themselves wer-buying. Efforts to sell stocks devel-oped that no demand existed at the higher range to which prices had beer pushed, and concessions were found necessary in order to execute selling orders. The arbitrary way in which prices were marked up just as the market closed yesterday followed by this withdrawal of demand today, begot the supplicion that an advantage.

Austin Hayden owler Gleason Manchester ACADEMY-WESTERLY GAME of Unjust Rulings by Official. The football game at Westerly or Wednesday afternoon between wich Free Academy and Westerly high school could be in no way recorded as a game of football under the new rules for the simple fact that the Academy made two touchdowns which were call ed vold because of poor ruling by the Westerly referee. As a good example of his incompetency it may be men-tioned that twice the only way the Academy could get the ball when they were entitled to it on downs was to have the distance measured by the umpire, Mr. Aultman, Both times the distance was evident by yards. The climax came in the concluding The chmax came in the concluding minute of the game, when Spencer got the ball and sped down the field to a touchdown, as most of the Academy team ceased from the pursuit because they had heard the referee's whistle blow and supposed the ball was dead according to the rules. In the wrangle that followed the referee admitted that he blew the whistle, but said it was accidental and he refused to grant the accidental and he refused to grant the Academy's demand that the touchdown be disallowed. Despairing of convincing the official by protracting the ar-gument, Coach Aultman took the Academy team of the field, thus leaving the game forfeited to Westerly, Westerly retaliated by oringing it back to the Academy 9 yard line just as time was called. Score 0-0. Academy took the ball under their wn goal. Bliss kicked to Spencer The kick was returned to the Academy goal and they kicked out from the 25 yard line. McCormick received punt and ran 30 yards. Forward passes and a fake placement trick were tried without success. The Academy then-picked up and Lawson and McCormick succeeded in rushing the ball to the f yard line, where McCormick carried the ball over for a touchdown, but the whistle blew and the referee failed to decide it as a touchdown. The Academy nevertheless scored five points. The period then ended after this rather hard decision.
